TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading - Thus says the LORD GOD: I will open your graves, have you rise from them, and settle you on your land. (Ezekiel 37:12-14).

Psalms - The Lord is kind and saves us (Psalm 130).

Second Reading - If Christ is in you, the spirit is alive even if the body is dead because of sin (Romans 8:8-11).

Gospel - Lazarus, dead for four days, came out of his tomb when Jesus called his name. Many of those who had seen what had happened began to believe in Jesus (John 11:1-45 [3-7, 17, 20-27, 33b-45]).

LIFE FROM GOD

As we approach Holy Week, our readings speak of a God who, in the midst of death, brings new life to the people. In Ezekiel, we hear that God will open the graves of the people of Israel, who faced near extinction. In the Gospel of John, Jesus gives new life to Lazarus in a manner that prefigures the resurrection of Jesus. Paul tells the Romans that in Christ, God will not only give life to our bodies after death, but God offers us abundant life here and now. We observe that the external conditions for the people described in these readings did not radically change. Israel was still in exile. Lazarus would eventually face death again. But now God's presence and power are revealed. Even when our situation in life is difficult and perhaps not likely to change soon, we remember that the Spirit dwells within us. Copyright © J. S. MINISTRY OF WELCOME

Are you a greeter? Always eager to see who will be coming through the door next? Do you like to be welcomed and greeted when you arrive at church, as if you were family coming home again? We need you and invite you to become a part of St. Andrew's Greeter/Usher Liturgical Ministry. Smiles and a welcoming hand of greeting are important to this amazing ministry of welcoming.

As a Greeter/Usher, you will also be asked to become aware of people's special needs as you seat them comfortably, as well as, letting communion ministers know who needs assistance during communion.

Common duties of the Greeter/Usher are to assist with seating and offertory collections at weekend and Holy Day Masses. After Mass, the Greeter/ Ushers stand at the doors distributing the bulletins, and answering questions visitors or current parishioners may have about our church.

If you are interested in more, please contact Debbie Shows, DRE for more information (830-281-0067). Holy Week is just around the corner, what a lovely time to begin a new ministry of faith and welcoming!
